Dear Mr. Cuffman:

The following is a supplemental answer to your May 3, 1994 CERCLA 104(e) request of Fox Valley Marketing Systems, 640 Industrial Drive, Cary, Illinois. This letter also supplements a June 2, 1994 letter from Ron Beckel to you concerning Fox Valley Systems' insurance policies. That letter stated that additional insurance information would be furnished to you through the law firm of Tressler, Soderstrom, Maloney & Priess. The letter also stated, that this arrangement will be noted in your file and that Fox Valley Systems will be deemed to be in compliance with the 30-day time limitation of your May 3, 1994 letter.

In Fox Valley Systems' response to your May 3, 1994 letter, it stated that information regarding the insurance request contained within question #8 of Attachment B3 of your letter will be forthcoming. The following is the information requested in question #8 of the B3 Attachment.

Fox Valley Systems, Inc. is insured by Country Companies, P.O. Box 2100, Bloomington, Illinois, 61702-2100. Fox Valley Systems, Inc. has been covered by Country Companies since its existence, from 1973 to the present. In 1973, Fox Valley had a general liability policy with a $300,000 liability limit. Fox Valley also has a commercial umbrella liability policy with a $1 million limit. These policies came into existence in 1973 and continue to the present. Each policy does contain a pollution exclusion clause. The pollution exclusion clause does not contain any language such as "sudden, non-sudden, or accidental".
